

Henrico County NAACP

Taking time to learn about your legislators is an invaluable asset to your advocacy efforts at any level of government. Legislators' personal history informs their public policy decisions. <https://whosmy.viriniageneralassembly.gov/> is a good source to find out who your legislators are and to connect with them.

The Virginia State Conference of the NAACP hosted Legislative Day on January 17, 2023. It was an opportunity to hear from Senators, Delegates, Agencies and Advocates, share questions and concerns and network with branches from around the Commonwealth. Click here to view the Virginia State Conference NAACP Legislative Agenda.

There are several bills that will be heard in this session that may affect you and your community. Share questions Do you know what bills are being reviewed in this 2023 session of the General Assembly? visit the Virginia Legislative Information System at <https://lis.virginia.gov/> to bills and resolutions, who is sponsoring them, the session calendar and more.

Our 2023 membership goal is to increase the number of members in our branch by 35%. To do that we need you!

Why do this? To support our efforts ensure the political, educational, social and economic equality of rights of all persons. With you we are able to deliver vital programs and services to those in our community that need them. With you, we must insure that future generations are afforded the opportunity to have a voice, to lead fearlessly, to carve out a place of equity across our society.

How can you help? Encourage those you know, work with, go to church with, fellowship with to join in the work of the Henrico NAACP. This is the Right Fight.

How do they sign up? Complete a membership application and submit the appropriate membership fee.

In person meeting

7
FEBRUARY 2023
AT BELMONT
RECREATION CENTER

GENERAL
MEMBERSHIP MEETING

to join virtually Click Here to Register

Virtual Participation Expectations

- All mics will remain muted through out the meeting unless recognized to speak.
- Enter your name and magesteral district in the chat
- Please enter questions and/or comments in the chat if possible. Your input is valuable to the work of our branch.
- if you wish to speak please raise your hand. The meeting moderator will recognize raised hands. (limit 2 minutes)
- Always be Respectful and Positive
- Follow Robert's Rules of Order

Support the Work!
JOIN A COMMITTEE
donate...
give time...
share your talents/gifts!

THIS IS POWER

Our success depends on you!

Click here to volunteer for a committee, join our mailing list or update your membership and contact information..

You're Invited!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

POETRY

SLAM

2023

DATE: February 23, 2023

TIME: 6:00 PM

LOCATION: The OAKS

10 S Oak Ave, Highland Springs, VA 23075

I have a Dream too...

NAACP
Henrico County Branch

Mark your calendar and come out to support Henrico County Public Schools middle and high school students! This event is free and open to the public.

February 9, 2023 HENRICO COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD Upcoming Meeting and Work Schedule

February 9, 2023 at 2p and 7:00 pm AKOMA DE GADO PRESENTS: AFRICAN THREAD, AMERICAN TREAD This production will display certain dances and rhythms that have sustained black folk throughout the diaspora for centuries. Living in America presents challenges of its own and some traditions/customs may evolve into new creations upon a different land. Akoma de Gado will take you on a journey from the African American perspective and bringing it to audiences during this 21st century. Tickets are free! No registration is required.

February 9, 2023 at 7:00 pm Planning Commission Public Hearing to review and make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors on rezoning, provisional use permit (PUP) applications, and amendments to accepted proffered conditions. Online at <https://henricountyva.new.swagit.com/events/15569>

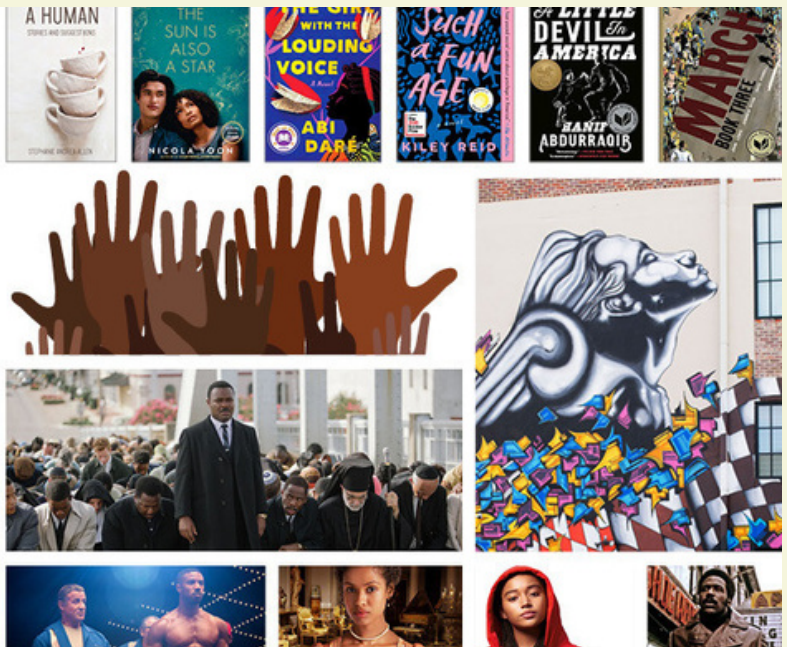

Feb 11, 2023 10a-3p Black History: Learning from the Past and Inspiring the Future at the Virginia Museum of History and Culture 428 N Arthur Ashe Boulevard Richmond, VA 23220. Hosted by Here2Hear. register at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/black-history-learning-from-the-past-and-inspiring-the-future-tickets-475860239787>

February 14, 2023 7P Henrico County Board of Supervisors <https://henrico.us/supervisors/next-meeting/>

February 16, 2023 6:30PM Created Equal Film Series: Raised/Razed Screening will be held at the Virginia Museum of History & Culture located at 428 N. Arthur Ashe Blvd, Richmond VA, There will be an opportunities to join in conversation with a panel of community members immediately directly following the screening. This event is Free, but registration required at:<https://secure.virginiahistory.org/1830/1833>

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

EVENTS FOR FEBRUARY 2023

Visit the library to explore contemporary local street art with Hamilton Glass, learn about Emancipation Towns in our region, research your family's history with the African American Genealogical Society of Central Virginia, taste soul food from a celebrated local chef, discuss Black authors and filmmakers, enjoy theatrical performances with your little ones, and so much more. No matter your interests, we are offering a way for you to engage with Black History and culture this month at the Library. <https://henricolibrary.org/news/library-news/entry/news-and-events/2023/01/25/black-history-month-2023>

Talking to Your Kids About Race - Dr. Ibram X. Kendi

Watch on YouTube

Make a Difference!
DONATE

The vital work we do advancing political, educational, social, and economic equality for Black people in depends on the generosity of supporters like you. Click here to donate.https://secure.actblue.com/donate/henrico-county-branch-naacp-1